

Edward C. Campbell

Born May 20, 1912, New Cumberland, Pennsylvania. AB, Princeton, 1933.
MA, Columbia, 1934. PhD, Columbia, 1938.

Joined the staff of The National Archives January 3, 1938, and have remained on the staff since. After serving in various capacities, became Director of the War Records Division in 1944. In 1950 moved to the newly established Records Management activity, first as Chief, Records Scheduling Branch and later as Director of the Records Center Division. In January of 1958 was appointed Regional Director, National Archives and Records Service, CSA Region 3. On March 27, 1967, assumed present duties of Assistant Archivist for the National Archives.